

Annual MRA Conference October 23-25, 2018 in St. Cloud, MN

MRA is hosting it's annual training and networking conference. MRA is a professional association for people working toward employment for people with disabilities. This conference is an opportunity for them to learn new strategies, refresh skills, learn about new or changing regulations, and to network with other professionals state-wide. Sample topics include: assistive technology, mental health, counseling, worker's compensation, labor market and employer needs, RSA legislation, and transition planning for high school and college students.
